

448 Arbitrary Arrest Cases were Recorded During January 2015

This report includes:

First: Introduction

Second: Details

- Arbitrary arrests made by government forces and its militias
- Arbitrary arrests made by extremist groups
- Arbitrary arrests made by armed opposition factions
- Arbitrary arrests made by YPG forces
- Releases
- Raid and search point that resulted in detentions
- Kidnappings that were carried out by unidentified groups

Third: Most notable cases

Fourth: Recommendations

First: Introduction

The details of any prisoner can be found by using the search engine on our websites. Also, the names and details of any prisoner can be submitted into our website. Our teams will add it to our archives once it is verified.

Second: Details

The following table shows the number of arrests that we recorded during the month of January. It should be noted that this the minimum number of arrests we were able to document in light of the ban and pursuit of our teams by government forces, extremist groups, and some of the armed opposition factions.

The Syrian government denies carrying out any kidnaping or arrest operations when it asked by prisoners' families. SNHR collects information about detainees from former detainees.

Arrests documented during January are as follows:

Arrests documented during January

■ Government Forces ■ YPG ■ Armed Opposition Factions ■ Extremist Groups

Arbitrary arrests made by government forces and its militias

Government Forces

Arbitrary arrests made by extremist groups

Extremist Groups

Arbitrary arrests made by armed opposition factions

Armed Opposition Factions

Arbitrary arrests made by YPG forces

Releases

Raid and search point that resulted in detentions

Parties responsible for the raids

Kidnappings that were carried out by unidentified groups

Third: Most notable cases

1- Most notable arbitrary arrests made by government forces:

- Mousa Ahmad Al-Allan, Ear specialist, from Ar-Raqqa – Sallouk city, on Tuesday 27 January, 2015, government forces arrested him at a security checkpoint in Damascus.

2- Most notable arbitrary arrests made by extremist groups:

- Wethab Al-Izzou, media activist from Idlib – Saraqeb city, 28-year-old, on Wednesday 7 January, he was arrested by An-Nusra Front forces at a checkpoint near Taftnaz military airbase in Idlib suburbs.

- Eyad Refea' As-Sbiekhan, medical activists and an x-ray technician, from Der Ez-zor – Hjien city, 39-year-old, on Sunday 18 January, 2015, he was arrested by Daesh forces from his residence in Hjien city.

3- Most notable arbitrary arrests made by armed opposition groups:

Salem Abunnasr, from Tartus city, 49-year-old, a dentist and medical activist in Aleppo, on Thursday 15 January, 2015, an armed opposition group called (the intelligence division) arrested him from his residence in Aleppo – Ash-Sha'ar neighborhood.

4- Most notable arbitrary arrests made by YPG:

- Female Child Nayrouz Hussein Hussein, from Aleppo – Ifreen city, 17-year-old, on Wednesday 14 January, 2015, YPG forces arrested him from her residence for conscription purposes.

- Mohammad Hassan Shaikh Dada, from Aleppo – Ifreen city, 22-year-old, on Tuesday 20 January, 2015, he was arrested by YPG forces from his residence in Ifreen city – Adamou village.

Recommendations

The Security Council

1- To insure the implementation of the resolutions: 2042, adopted on 14 April, 2012, resolution 2043, adopted on 21 April, 2012, and resolution 2139, adopted on 22 February, 2014, which was adopted to put an end to enforced-disappearance.

2- The United Nations and the Security Council should act upon their responsibilities in regard to hundreds of thousands of enforced-disappearance and detention cases in Syria.

