The Consequences of five years for the most notable violations of human rights in Syria.
Women’s death toll according to the main conflict parties in Syria since March 2011 and up till March 2016

According to SNHR documentation

Death under torture death toll according to the main conflict parties in Syrian since March 2011 and up till March 2016

According to SNHR documentation
Media activists’ death toll according to the main conflict parties in Syria since March 2011 and up till March 2016

According to SNHR documentation

Medical staffers’ death toll according to the main conflict parties in Syria since March 2011 and up till March 2016

According to SNHR documentation
The total number of arbitrary arrests by main conflict parties in Syria since March 2011 and up till March 2016

- Government forces: 12,659
  - Women: 9,343
  - Children: 3,316
- Unidentified Groups: 6,912
  - Women: 5,471
  - Children: 1,441
- ISIS: 6,318
  - Women: 4,847
  - Children: 1,471
- Armed Opposition Groups: 2,439
  - Women: 1,858
  - Children: 581
- Kurdish Self Management Forces: 1,839
  - Women: 1,453
  - Children: 386
- Al Nusra front: 1,534
  - Women: 1,146
  - Children: 388

75 – 80% of the arbitrary arrests are considered as enforced disappearance cases

According to SNHR documentation

Government forces dropped not less than 35,956 barrel bombs since March 2011 and up till March 2016 which killed 14,652 civilians including 2,896 children and 2,672 women

According to SNHR documentation
SNHR documented not less than 4057 attacks on educational facilities since March 2011 and up till March 2016.

SNHR documented not less than 2146 attacks on mosques since March 2011 and up till March 2016.
SNHR documented not less than 78 attacks on churches in Syria since March 2011 and up till March 2016

According to SNHR documentation

---

SNHR documented not less than 167 gas attacks, including Chlorine gas, by government forces since it was first used in 23 December 2012 and up till March 2016

detailed as follows:

33 gas attacks
before UNSC resolution 2118
was issued on 27 Sep 2013.

134 gas attacks
after UNSC resolution 2118 was issued, 65 amongst which were committed after resolution 2209 was issued on 6 March 2015.
SNHR documented the use of chemical weapons in 169 incidents in Syria since it was first used on 23 December 2012 and up till March 2016.

detailed as follows

Government forces: 167
ISIS: 2

SNHR documented the killing of individuals including 294 children and 189 women 901 due to the government imposed siege on regions that are under the control of armed opposition since March 2011 and up till 2016.