

The citizen Mohammad Al Sagheir Enforced to Disappear since 2015

SNHR briefed the UN Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary disappearances, of the case of the citizen Mohammad Al Sagheir from Brazil street neighborhood in Homs city, age 29 at the time of his arrest, and asked to request of the Syrian authorities to release him as he was arrested arbitrarily at a checkpoint located on Al Nakhleh circle in Brazil street neighborhood in Homs city on 17 December 2012 by the members of the checkpoint who were in military outfits. Then, they took him to an unknown place. The members of the checkpoint are related to military security forces of government forces.

On 5 December 2015, he was seen in the Syrian newspapers Al Watan which published pictures of detainees where government forces claimed that their affairs are being settled ahead of release. Since then, his fate remains unknown for his family and the Syrian Network for Human Rights as well.

Syrian authorities deny enforcing the citizen Mohammad Al Sagheir to disappear, SNHR were unable to determine his fate until now, as is his family, and they are afraid of detention and torture in the event of repeating questions about him, as happened with many similar cases.

SNHR demanded the United Nations Committee on Enforced Disappearance to intervene with the Syrian authorities for his immediate release, and the release of thousands of cases of enforced disappearances and the need to determine their fate.

And despite the fact that the Syrian government is not a party of the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearances, but in contrast Party on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant, and the Arab Charter on Human Rights, which enforced disappearances violates both provisions. SNHR also confirmed fears of torture and possibly death under torture against enforced disappeared since 2011, and the numbers of enforced disappearances still mounting.

