The Syrian Network for Human Rights (SNHR), founded in June 2011, is a non-governmental, independent group that is considered a primary source for the OHCHR on all death toll-related analyses in Syria.

The citizen Maher Ghazal

killed by Syrian regime forces

The Syrian Network for Human Rights informed the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the extrajudicial killing on the case of the citizen Maher Ghazal, from Aleppo city, al Mashhad neighborhood, age 27, who died as Syrian regime missiles launcher fired surface-to-surface missile on al Mashhad neighborhood which controlled by armed opposition factions at the time of the incident, on October 24, 2016.

The Syrian Authorities didn’t admit to killing the citizen, and his family couldn’t submit a complaint out of fear of security pursuit as they live in an area out of Syrian regime control.

SNHR confirmed its fear of the killing of civilians from the year 2011, and the victims’ numbers are continuously rising.
