The Syrian Network for Human Rights, founded in June 2011, is a non-governmental, non-profit independent organization that is a primary source for the United Nations on all death toll-related statistics in Syria

The child Adnan Al Imam

Enforced to Disappear since 2014

SNHR briefed the UN Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary disappearances, of the case of the child Adnan Al Imam from Al Mujtahed neighborhood in Damascus city, age 14 at the time of his arrest, and asked to request of the Syrian authorities to release him as he was arrested arbitrarily on 1 August 2013, when the state security forces related to government forces stormed his residence in Al Mujtahed neighborhood in Damascus city and took him to the state security 251 branch which is called Al Khateeb Branch and located in Baghdad street in Al Khateeb area in Damascus city where he was seen last time on 5 January 2014.

Then, he was taken to an unknown place. His family had no information to determine his fate or whereabouts after that date, since then his fate remain unknown for his family and the Syrian Network for Human Rights as well.

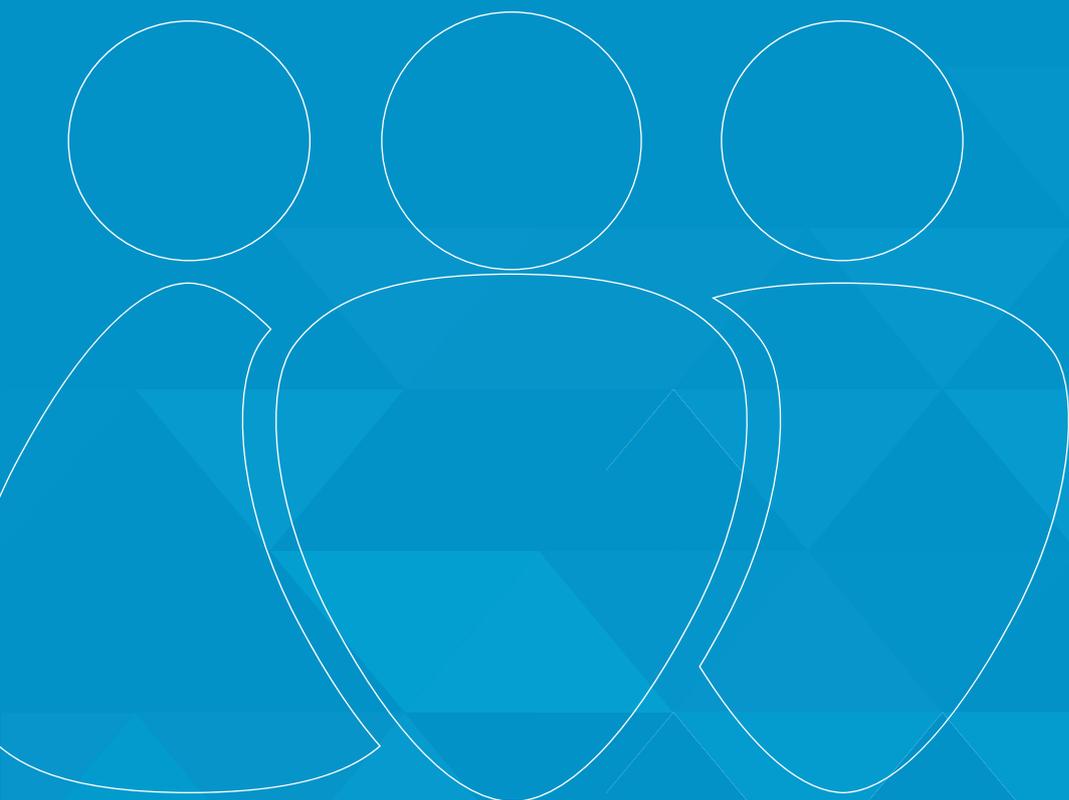

Syrian authorities deny enforcing the child Adnan Al Imam to disappear, SNHR were unable to determine his fate until now, as is his family, and they are afraid of detention and torture in the event of repeating questions about him, as happened with many similar cases.

SNHR demanded the United Nations Committee on Enforced Disappearance to intervene with the Syrian authorities for his immediate release, and the release of thousands of cases of enforced disappearances and the need to determine their fate.

And despite the fact that the Syrian government is not a party of the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearances, but in contrast Party on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant, and the Arab Charter on Human Rights, which enforced disappearances violates both provisions.

SNHR also confirmed fears of torture and possibly death under torture against enforced disappeared since 2011, and the numbers of enforced disappearances still mounting.
