The Syrian Network for Human Rights, founded in June 2011, is a non-governmental, non-profit independent organization that is a primary source for the United Nations on all death toll-related statistics in Syria

The citizen Abdul Sattar al Qarji

Enforced to Disappear since 2012

SNHR briefed the UN Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary disappearances, of the case of the citizen «Abdul Sattar al Qarji «from Kafr Nabbol city in the suburbs of Idlib governorate, age 37 at the time of his arrest and asked to request of the Syrian authorities to release him as he was arrested arbitrarily when he was passing a checkpoint of Syrian regime forces on February 3, 2012 by the members of Syrian regime army forces and they took him to an unknown place. Since then, his fate remains unknown for the Syrian Network for Human Rights as well as his family.

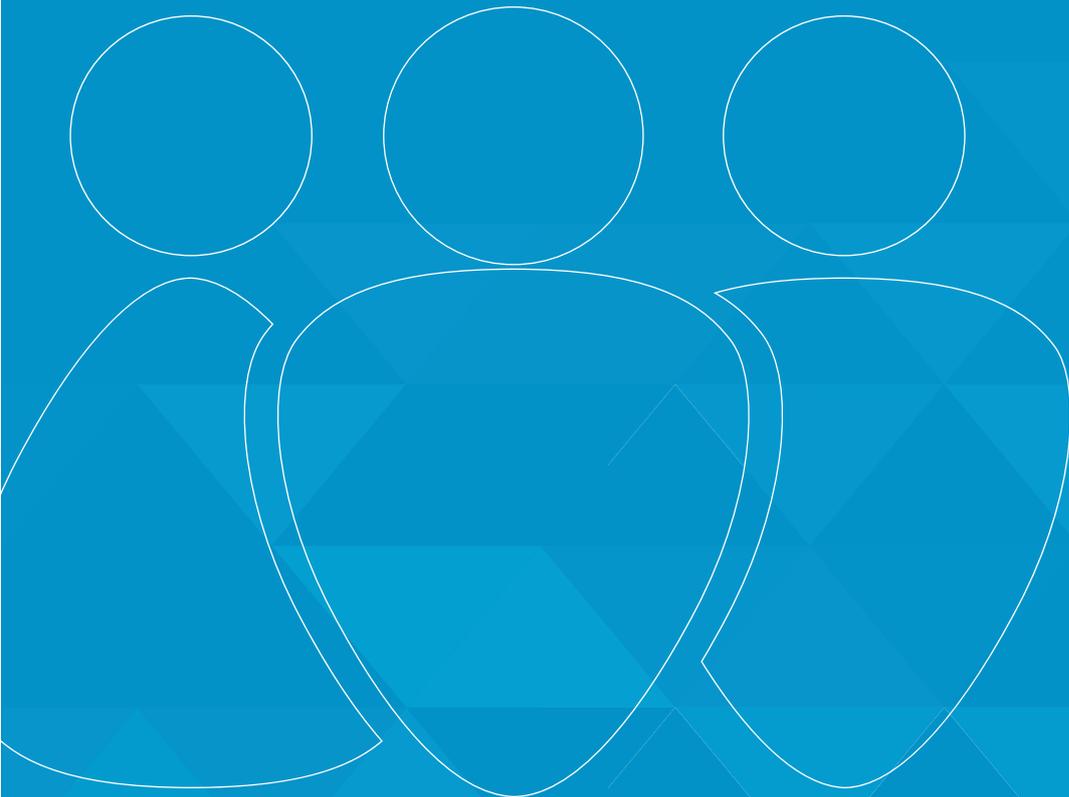

Syrian authorities deny enforcing the citizen Abdul Sattar al Qarji to disappear, SNHR were unable to determine his fate until now, as is his family, and they are afraid of detention and torture in the event of repeating questions about him, as happened with many similar cases. SNHR demanded the United Nations Committee on Enforced Disappearance to intervene with the Syrian authorities for his immediate release, and the release of thousands of cases of enforced disappearances and the need to determine their fate.

And despite the fact that the Syrian government is not a party of the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearances, but in contrast Party on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant, and the Arab Charter on Human Rights, which enforced disappearances violates both provisions.

SNHR also confirmed fears of torture and possibly death under torture against enforced disappeared since 2011, and the numbers of enforced disappearances still mounting.
