

225 Arbitrary Arrest Cases were Recorded During November

This report includes

First: Introduction

Second: Details

Arbitrary arrest cases by government forces and its militias

Arbitrary arrest cases by extremist groups

Arbitrary arrest cases by armed opposition groups

Releases

Raids and Screenings that resulted in detentions

Kidnappings that were carried out by unidentified groups

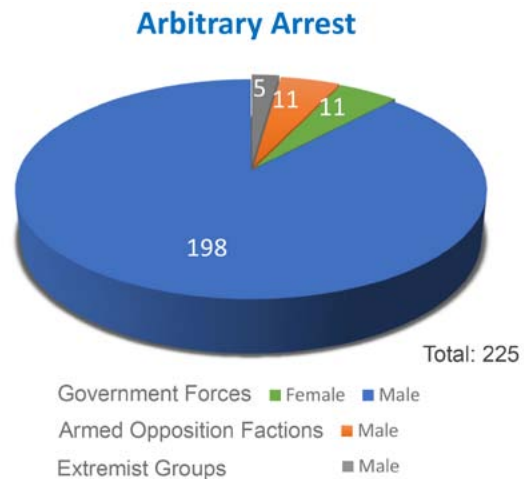

Third: Recommendations

Introduction

The details of any prisoner can be found by using the search engine on our websites. Also, the names and details of any prisoner can be submitted into our website. Our teams will add it to our

Details

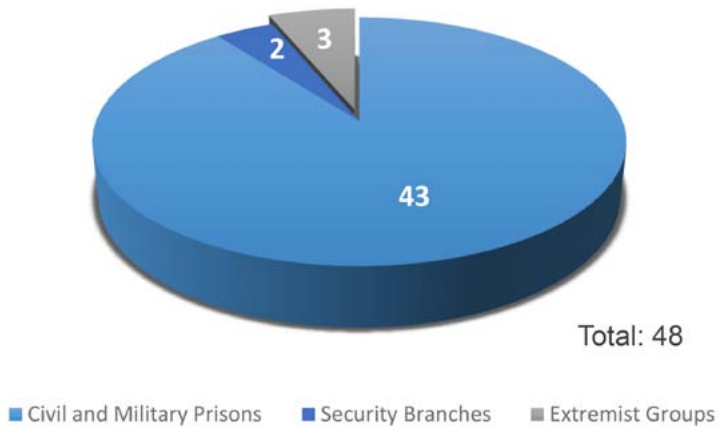

The following table shows the number of arrests that we recorded during the month of November. It should be noted that this the minimum number of arrests we were able to document in light of the ban and pursuit of our teams by government forces, extremist groups, and some of the armed opposition factions.

Releases from different detention centers were as follows:

Releases from detention centers

Raids and Screenings that resulted in detentions:

Kidnapping that were carried out by unidentified groups

Kidnapping

Total: 17

- Areas Under The Control of the Syrian Government
- Rebels-held Areas
- Areas Under The Control of Extremist Groups

Recommendations

To The Security Council and The United Nation

1. To insure the implementation of the resolutions: 2042, adopted on 14 May, 2012, and resolution 2139, adopted on 22 February, 2014, which was adopted to put an end to enforced-disappearance.
2. The United Nations and the Security Council should act upon their responsibilities in regard to hundreds of thousands of enforced-disappearance and detention cases in Syria.

Syrian Network For Human Rights
الشبكة السورية لحقوق الإنسان

