The Syrian Network for Human Rights, founded in June 2011, is a non-governmental, non-profit independent organization that is a primary source for the United Nations on all death toll-related statistics in Syria

The citizen Majd Mohammad Asfari

killed by Syrian regime forces

The Syrian Network for Human Rights informed the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the extrajudicial killing on the case of the citizen Majd Asfari, from Idlib city in Idlib governorate, born in 1987, as his family received information on February 5, 2017, confirming his death due to torture in a Syrian regime detention center by a call from the military police in Damascus city informing them to come and take the death certificate.

The Syrian Authorities didn't admit to killing the citizen, and his family couldn't submit a complaint out of fear of security pursuit.

SNHR confirmed its fear of the killing of civilians from the year 2011, and the victims' numbers are continuously rising.
