Bring back our mother Mariam a documented report on the abduction of
Mrs. Majida Adnan Mahmoud

On 19 May a patrol of the Syrian Air force in civilian and military outfits stormed a photocopy center in Ibn Seana Street in Jableh city (Al Nano'a shop for photocopy), four medium-sized men took Mrs. Majida Mahmoud who have been working there for more than two years. Then put her in their car and took her to an unknown place. There was no female member with that patrol. Mrs. Majida wasn't seen after that time according to (Q.N) the eyewitness of the incident.

Majida Adnan Mahmoud, born on 14 November 1977 in Jableh city in Latakia governorate, lives in Al Fayd neighborhood and has two children by a former marriage. Her kids live with her mother Mrs. Safa (a boy Ali Tarifi 12 years old and a girl Nour Tarifi 10 years old). Government forces hasn't allowed any kind of contact with the missing woman for over month and they did not allow her to hire a lawyer to handle her case and insure her rights. Furthermore, there weren't any charges.

However, former female detainees, who were released, met her in the prison and assured that she was arrested for contacting her relative Abdulhadi Mahmoud who is the most important wanted man in Jableh city as the regime believes he was involved in organizing protests and one of the main activists. It should be noted that Air Force Intelligence had arrested her brother Osama Adnan Mahmoud in November 2011 and was released after two months in which he was subjected to various kinds of torture.

Mariam (Majida's nickname) was transferred to Latakia city after her enforced disappearance and then to the capital Damascus, according to the testimony of (S.S) who met her in the capital prison. As of this moment, her family hasn't been allowed to visit her.

Damascus Center for Human Rights Studies and Syrian Network Human Rights urge international organization to take immediate steps to press on the Syrian regime in order to protect Mrs. Majeda and insure that she gets back to her kids, and focus on enabling the role activists, lawyers, and international law experts to coordinate human rights activism inside and outside Syria in order to draw attention to the issue of female detainees in the Syrian regime prisoners on Arabic and International level.
