The Syrian Network for Human Rights (SNHR), founded in June 2011, is a non-governmental, independent group that is considered a primary source for the OHCHR on all death toll-related analyses in Syria.

The citizen Salim Mohammad Khair al Salloum

killed by Syrian regime forces

The Syrian Network for Human Rights informed the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the extrajudicial killing on the case of the citizen Salim Mohammad Khair al Salloum from Idlib governorate, Kafranbel city, born in 1981, as his family received information , on February 12, 2017, confirming his death due to torture in Sednaya Military Prison affiliated to Syrian regime forces through a call form an officer of Syrian regime forces, in Sednaya Military Prison, in which he told his family about his death.

The Syrian Authorities didn't admit to killing the citizen, and his family couldn't submit a complaint out of fear of security pursuit.
